

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PREFACE

vii

1. FIRST PROCESSES

The Kat River Valley	1
Physical Situation	1
The socio-historical situation of the Kat River Valley	3
Catchment management initiatives in the valley	6
Relationship with DWAF	7
The Catchment Research Group/community initiative	8
Role-playing upstream and downstream concepts	10
Preparing for participation in water resource management	12
The first open meeting	14
Follow-up meetings	15

2. THE CATCHMENT FORUM

The community survey	16
Workshops leading to the establishment of the Catchment Forum	18
Environmental Awareness workshops	19
'Way Forward' workshops	19
Building a catchment identity	20
Catchment Forum members speak about their involvement	21
Identification of common issues September- October 2000	24
The role of the CF in establishing the WUA	25
The Catchment Forum's role in the Ecological Reserve pilot programme	26
The CF executive committee and re-evaluation of the Catchment Forum's role	27
Keeping up momentum	29
LandCare goes ahead	30
The growth of the CF	31
Sharing lessons beyond the Kat River Valley	31
Kat River CF meets Mtata CF	31
Kat River CF meets Okhombo CF	32

iv

3. SETTING UP THE WATER USER ASSOCIATION

Two beginnings	33
Transforming the Kat River Irrigation Board	33
Drafting the constitution	36
Follow-up meetings	38
Redrafting the constitution	41
Preparing for the management committee elections	44
Misinterpretations and confusions	46
The difficulty with registering farmers	47
Organising the voting process	49
The election: 12/13 April 2002	50
Commercial farmers and voting in the Lower Kat	50
The municipality as water service provider	51
Small-scale, emerging farmers and schedule 1 users in the Upper and Middle Kat	51
Assessing the election	52
The role of the Catchment Forum in the WUA process	52
Build-up to the voting	53
Voting day	53
After the voting	54
How effective and happy were the voting helpers from the CF?	55
Other reflections	55
Post-election developments	57
Assessments of the WUA and its future	58
What kind of institutional animal?	61

4. THE SISONKE LANDCARE PROJECT

LandCare in South Africa	62
The Sisonke LandCare project	63
CF members look back on the LandCare project	64
Evaluation of the Sisonke LandCare project	67
Shortcomings of the project	70