

| TABLE OF CONTENTS   | PAGE |
|--|-------------|
| BACKGROUND  | ii   |
| • Other reports  | ii          |
| • Foreword   | iii         |
| • Project Team   | iv          |
| Part 1: ISSUES AND PRINCIPLES FOR HEALTH RISK COMMUNICATION       | 1    |
| • Myths and actions  | 2           |
| • Rules of risk communication  | 3           |
| • Factors influencing risk perception                                    | 3           |
| • Interacting with the community   | 4           |
| • Communication channels   | 6           |
| • Earning trust and building credibility                                 | 7           |
| • Principles of risk communication                                       | 8           |
| Part 2: BARRIERS TO EFFECTIVE RISK COMMUNICATION                  | 11   |
| • Access to information  | 12          |
| • Participation in the process   | 12          |
| • Differences in perceptions   | 13          |
| • Differences in receptivity   | 13          |
| • Lack of understanding of the scientific process                        | 13          |
| • Source credibility   | 14          |
| • Diversity (societal characteristics)                                   | 14          |
| • Media  | 14          |
| Part 3: STRATEGIES FOR EFFECTIVE RISK COMMUNICATION               | 15   |
| • General considerations for effective risk communication                | 16          |
| • Strategies for risk communication in a non-crisis situation            | 17          |
| • Strategies for risk communication during a water quality health crisis | 19          |
| • Evaluation of communication activities                                 | 21          |
| Part 4: PRESENTING AND PREPARING INFORMATION FOR PUBLIC MEETINGS  | 23   |
| • Before the meeting   | 24          |
| • The opening presentation   | 25          |
| • Presentation aids  | 26          |
| • Planning and preparation   | 26          |
| • Design guidelines  | 26          |
| • Presentation reminders   | 27          |
| • A presentation planner   | 28          |
| • Answering question   | 29          |
| • Some do's and don'ts of listening                                      | 32          |
| • Managing hostile situations  | 33          |
| Part 5: THE ROLE OF THE MEDIA                                     | 35   |
| • The players  | 36          |
| • The media perspective  | 37          |
| • The spokesperson and preparing a message                               | 37          |
| • What to do before, during and after an interview                       | 38          |
| • Media relations in a crisis situation                                  | 40          |
| • How to handle the media  | 40          |
| REFERENCES  | 42   |