

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
Acknowledgements	i
Executive summary	vi
PART I : INTRODUCTION	1
1.1 BACKGROUND	1
1.2 DEFINITION OF GENDER	2
1.2.1 Gender	2
1.2.2 Empowerment	3
1.2.3 Sustainability and sustainable development	3
1.2.4 Culture	4
1.2.5 Participation versus involvement	5
1.3 ABOUT THIS DOCUMENT	6
PART II : LITERATURE REVIEW AND RESEARCH METHODOLOGY	8
2.1 LITERATURE REVIEW	8
2.1.1 International trends in gender awareness	8
2.1.2 Gender and development internationally	8
2.1.3 Gender awareness internationally	9
2.1.4 Gender, water supply and sanitation	9
2.1.5 Gender and roles	9
2.1.6 Gender trends and awareness in Africa	10
2.1.7 Gender trends and awareness in South Africa	10
2.1.8 Gender in water supply and sanitation in South Africa	10
2.2 RESEARCH METHODOLOGY	15
2.2.1 Research approaches	15
2.2.2 The research process	18
2.2.3 The target groups	19
2.2.4 The information gathering techniques	22
2.2.5 Training of interviewers	23
2.2.6 Project awareness in target communities	23
PART III : DATA ANALYSIS	24
3.1. QUANTITATIVE ANALYSIS	24
3.1.1 Gender of the respondents	24
3.1.2 Age of the respondents	25
3.1.3 Composition of the households	26
3.1.4 Education level of respondents	27
3.1.5 Level of income per month	28
3.1.6 Income earners	29
3.1.7 Representation on committees	30
3.1.8 Decision-making on water supply projects	31

3.1.9	Decision-making on sanitation projects	32
3.1.10	Decision-making on development projects	33
3.1.11	Decision-making on family matters	34
3.1.12	Decision-making on money matters	35
3.1.13	Decision-making on land use	36
3.2	QUALITATIVE ANALYSIS	37
3.2.1	Gender roles and responsibilities	37
3.2.2	Participation in decision-making	39
3.2.3	Gender needs	41
3.2.4	The role of culture in water supply and sanitation	44
PART IV : CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATIONS		47
4.1.	CONCLUSION	47
4.1.1	Decision-making	47
4.1.2	Culture	47
4.1.3	Roles and responsibilities	47
4.1.4	Training and education	48
4.1.5	Attitudes and awareness	48
4.1.6	The impact of women's participation on water supply and sanitation projects	49
4.1.7	Barriers to the empowerment of women	49
4.2	RECOMMENDATIONS	50
4.2.1	Gender sensitive development	50
4.2.2	Culture/traditional values	51
4.2.3	Process of community interaction	51
4.2.4	Assessment of gender needs	52
4.2.5	Capacity building and training of men and women	52
4.2.6	Gender awareness for men and women	53
4.3	PROPOSED STRATEGY FOR THE EMPOWERMENT OF RURAL WOMEN IN THE FIELD OF WATER SUPPLY AND SANITATION	54
4.3.1	Policy and process	54
4.3.2	Implementation plan	54
4.3.3	The training of local government structures, NGOs and consultants	55
4.3.4	Forums for communication regarding gender issues	55
4.3.5	Developing gender awareness programmes	56
4.3.6	Implementing gender awareness workshops	56
4.3.7	Monitoring and evaluating the impact of gender awareness workshops	56
4.3.8	Alignment of the gender awareness programmes	56
4.3.9	The empowerment programme	57
4.3.10	The empowerment workshops	57
4.4	PROPOSED STRUCTURE OF A GENDER AWARENESS WORKSHOP	58
4.4.1	Workshop approach	58
4.4.2	Methodology	58
4.4.3	Process	58