

E: 14:00 to 15:00

Title: PART 2E. Human rights based approaches.

Water resources management for productive uses has 2 components:

- right to resource, current statutory law (licencing) is discriminatory for small-scale users
- right to the service/infrastructure for productive uses

Human rights based approaches also require duty bearers to ensure good laws.